Bachelor / Master Seminar Software Engineering
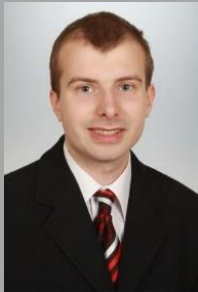

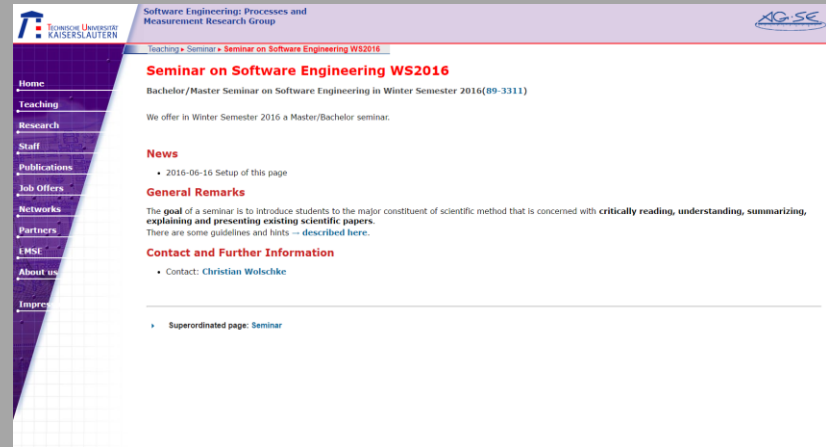

Prof. Dr. Dr. h. c. H. Dieter Rombach

WS 2016

Administrative Information

Organisational Supervision

Christian Wolschke
wolschke@cs.uni-kl.de
32-437

http://agse.cs.uni-kl.de/
teaching/seminar/WS2016/

Goal of the Seminar

- critical reading
- understanding
- summarizing
- explaining
- presenting

of existing scientific papers.

General Remarks

- Joint Bachelor/Master Seminar

- Languages:
    - Bachelor: German or English, your choice!
    - Master: English

- Successful participation in the seminar requires:
    - Participation at meetings
    - Adherence to deadline
    - Seminar Paper
    - Seminar Paper Review
    - Presentation

Phases and deadlines

1) Kick-off-meeting: Oct 19, 2016 (11:30 h in 36-265)

2) Annotated table of contents: Nov 15, 2016

3) (*) First version of seminar paper: Jan 22, 2017

4) (*)() Final version of seminar presentation: Jan 29, 2017

5) (*)() Review other seminar papers: Feb 05, 2017

5) (*) Revised (camera ready) version of seminar paper: Feb 14, 2017

6) Presentation: see topic assignment sheet

(*): Documents need to be sent to topic supervisor and to wolschke@cs.uni-kl.de

() Changed at Jan 13

Term Paper

Master Students: Approximately 15 pages (excluding title page, table of contents, references, figures)

Bachelor Students: Approximately 10 pages (excluding title page, table of contents, references, figures)

LNCS Style

Seminar Paper Review

Phase 1: Review of one other seminar papers

Output:

- Review report

Phase 2: Improvement of own seminar paper based on review reports

Output:

- Revised seminar paper
- Rejoinder document

Presentation

Masters Students: 20 min. presentation (hard deadline!)

10 min. questions & answers session and comments on presentation style

Bachelor Students: 20 min. presentation (hard deadline!)

10 min. questions & answers session and comments on presentation style

How to fail a seminar

- Topic not addressed
- Plagiarism
- Missed deadlines
- No attendance in seminar talks
- Seminar paper has low level of quality (content, grammar, spelling)
- Bad presentation
- Ignoring further rules and guidelines (review, presentation)
- …

Topic assignments

- Find list of topic assignments on the web
- Also your to-review-paper is denoted there
- There are two groups (A and B) for final presentation
- You must come to all presentations of your group